10 REASONS TO choose the uVvA

1. DIVERSE RANGE OF ENGLISH COURSES

With UvA faculties and international institutions offering English-taught courses.

2. INTERNATIONAL RESEARCH

In the City as a Campus, with more than 2,800 students, allowing for a unique and charming historical ambience.

3. HISTORY

1632—UvA students are hosted by one of the faculties and will receive academic and practical guidance from the departmental international office. You may be allowed to take one course at another faculty, but you are expected to complete a full-time course load in one department. The central international office of partner universities helps students with all kinds of practical matters.

4. INTERNATIONAL SUPPORT

A world-class education at the University of Amsterdam enjoys a global reputation for cutting-edge research, high-quality teaching and a broad range of degree programs. Our open, tolerant and international academic tradition dates back to 1632, and continues strongly today thanks to our thriving community of independent thinkers. Now, with more than 31,000 students, we are considered one of the best research universities in the world.

5. DUTCH OR ENGLISH

As an international student at the University of Amsterdam, you have the unique opportunity of choosing whether to attend courses in Dutch or in English. Both have their advantages and come with international exposure to the rest of the world.

6. STUDENTS' SUPPORT

There are 8,100 students from 100 nationalities, which makes Amsterdam one of the most international cities in the world with a population of over 810,000 inhabitants. Amsterdam is the financial, creative and cultural heart of Europe, attracting many (international) companies, institutions and research organisations. The city boasts beautiful canals, unique bridges, and world-class museums and art galleries.

7. PRactical SUPPORT

During your time with us, you will learn new analytical skills, and help you broaden your horizon. If you are an ambitious student at one of our partner universities, we encourage you to participate in a challenging and inspiring academic exchange experience at the UvA, with practical and political setting skills.

8. TRANSFER LOCATION

If your university is already part of our network of over 375 partner universities worldwide, the only way to apply is through your university’s international office. If your university is not part of our network, it offer you one of the largest selections of English-taught programmes to choose from.

9. PERSONAL DEVELOPMENT

Come on exchange at the University of Amsterdam, there are numerous (international) companies, institutions and enterprises. The city boasts beautiful architecture, interactive teaching style, and cutting-edge education facilities. The people of Amsterdam are open and friendly, and many use English as their second language. Getting around in a city is easy using the extensive public transport system, or you can explore the city by bike, discovering places where no cars, buses or trains can take you.

10. No guts, no story

The city as a campus

The city is a complex of four campuses nestled in the city of Amsterdam. Classes are held in state-of-the-art buildings, or in buildings with clean design study facilities and research labs. On our campuses, traditional buildings, research offices, students and research centers, disciplines, colleges, and business, governments and knowledge institutions collaborate.
10 REASONS TO choose the uVU

1. English-taught courses
   Denmark, Spain

4. Dutch language courses
   UTV

3. International classroom
   AIUR

6. Quality of life
   MVT

7. Practical support
   HHD

8. Personal development
   EPR

9. On-campus accommodation
   QER

10. Location
    CED

UvA's global network benefits you if you are interested in studying or exchanging at the University of Amsterdam, as you may get the chance to...

We're here to help

Incoming exchange students are hosted by one of the faculties and will receive academic and practical assistance from the Departmental International Office. You may be allowed to take one course at another faculty, but you are expected to complete a full-time course load in one department. The central international office of your partner university will assist you and your university in case of any agreement that leads to the exchange of students. To learn more on the various faculties, please visit www.uva.nl/faculty

EXCHANGE PROGRAMMES STUDYING IN AMSTERDAM

No guts, no story

The city as a campus

The city as a campus

A world-class education

Founded on a tradition of highly integrated academics, the University of Amsterdam enjoys a global reputation for cutting-edge research, high-quality teaching and a broad range of degree programmes. Our open, tolerant and international academic tradition dates back to 1632, and continues strongly today, thanks to our thriving community of independent thinkers. None other than 7,800 students, we are considered one of the top research universities in the world. The UvA is very proud to offer you one of the largest selections of English-taught courses in Europe. Coming on exchange...

We participate in an extensive network of European and global partner universities to facilitate student exchanges and help you broaden your horizons. If you are an ambitious student at one of our partner universities, we encourage you to participate in a challenging and inspiring academic exchange programme at the UvA. The UvA is the capital of the European Higher Education Area (EHEA), so on your exchange at the UvA, you will benefit from all the advantages of the EHEA. This unique and charming historical ambience. The people of Amsterdam are very friendly and welcoming to foreigners who speak English in the city's second language. Getting around is easy using the extensive public transport system, or you can explore the city by bike, discovering places where no cars, buses or trams can take you.

Studyin Amsterdam

Amsterdam provides an ideal environment for academic study. As the capital of the Netherlands, Amsterdam is a city of numerous international companies, institutions and museums. The city's finest institutions combine the latest research with a rich historical heritage. The people of Amsterdam are very friendly and welcoming to foreigners who speak English in the city's second language. Getting around is easy using the extensive public transport system, or you can explore the city by bike, discovering places where no cars, buses or trams can take you.

U N I V E R S I T Y O F A M S T E R D A M

A world-class education

Founded on a tradition of highly integrated academics, the University of Amsterdam enjoys a global reputation for cutting-edge research, high-quality teaching and a broad range of degree programmes. Our open, tolerant and international academic tradition dates back to 1632, and continues strongly today, thanks to our thriving community of independent thinkers. None other than 7,800 students, we are considered one of the top research universities in the world. The UvA is very proud to offer you one of the largest selections of English-taught courses in Europe. Coming on exchange...

We participate in an extensive network of European and global partner universities to facilitate student exchanges and help you broaden your horizons. If you are an ambitious student at one of our partner universities, we encourage you to participate in a challenging and inspiring academic exchange programme at the UvA. The UvA is the capital of the European Higher Education Area (EHEA), so on your exchange at the UvA, you will benefit from all the advantages of the EHEA. This unique and charming historical ambience. The people of Amsterdam are very friendly and welcoming to foreigners who speak English in the city's second language. Getting around is easy using the extensive public transport system, or you can explore the city by bike, discovering places where no cars, buses or trams can take you.

Studyin Amsterdam

Amsterdam provides an ideal environment for academic study. As the capital of the Netherlands, Amsterdam is a city of numerous international companies, institutions and museums. The city's finest institutions combine the latest research with a rich historical heritage. The people of Amsterdam are very friendly and welcoming to foreigners who speak English in the city's second language. Getting around is easy using the extensive public transport system, or you can explore the city by bike, discovering places where no cars, buses or trams can take you.
10 REASONS TO choose the uVdA

1. STUDENT SERVICES: All uVdeAs benefits highly to international students, and our study and campus life are in the top 100 worldwide.

2. RANKING OF ECONOMIC COURSES: With Dutch and international reputation, uVdA is one of Europe's top English-taught courses.

3. INTERNATIONAL CLASSROOM: uVdA is internationally competitive, with an extensive range of academic programs.

4. HISTORY: The Dutch national university was founded in 1632, and continues strong today thanks to our thriving research and international academic tradition.

5. QUALITY OF LIFE: The location of the university, close to Amsterdam city centre and U21, gives students access to all the benefits of Amsterdam, the country, and of Universitas.

6. PRACTICAL SUPPORT: uVdA faculty and staff ensure that you have a smooth transition into a new culture and country.

7. PERSONAL DEVELOPMENT: The UvA fosters a unique learning environment encouraging students to develop self-reliance and professional skills.

8. FOREIGN LOCATION: Almost all students are placed with host families or in student accommodation.

9. PERSONAL ASSISTANCE: The UvA assists students with all kinds of practical matters.

10. DUTCH LANGUAGE COURSES: The UvA offers Dutch language courses.

Spain: 7
Italy: 5
France: 2

Incoming exchange students are hosted by one of the UvA, and what the deadlines and application procedures are. Further details of the exchange programmes, and assists students with all kinds of practical matters. More details on the exchange programmes, and assists students with all kinds of practical matters.

We're here to help

Incoming exchange students are hosted by one of the UvA, and what the deadlines and application procedures are. Further details of the exchange programmes, and assists students with all kinds of practical matters.

We're here to help

Incoming exchange students are hosted by one of the UvA, and what the deadlines and application procedures are. Further details of the exchange programmes, and assists students with all kinds of practical matters.

The UvA is comprised of four campuses, nestled in the city of Amsterdam. Classes are held in state-of-the-art buildings, or on campus, allowing students to study their chosen discipline with a helpful, collaborative atmosphere. The city is known for its world-class museums, vibrant nightlife, and world-renowned cultural events.

Studying in Amsterdam

Amsterdam University offers an ideal environment for academic study. As part of the country's student-friendly environment, 85,000 inhabitants Amsterdam is the cultural, financial and commercial hub of the Netherlands. It's also home to numerous (international) companies, institutions and museums. The city boasts beautiful architecture, including the world-renowned Begijnhof, and a rich cultural heritage.

The city as a campus

The city of Amsterdam, and its unique geographical location, offers an ideal environment for studying. As part of the country's student-friendly environment, 85,000 inhabitants Amsterdam is the cultural, financial and commercial hub of the Netherlands. It’s also home to numerous (international) companies, institutions and museums. The city boasts beautiful architecture, including the world-renowned Begijnhof, and a rich cultural heritage. The city of Amsterdam is known for its world-class museums, vibrant nightlife, and world-renowned cultural events.

The city as a campus

The city of Amsterdam, and its unique geographical location, offers an ideal environment for studying. As part of the country's student-friendly environment, 85,000 inhabitants Amsterdam is the cultural, financial and commercial hub of the Netherlands. It’s also home to numerous (international) companies, institutions and museums. The city boasts beautiful architecture, including the world-renowned Begijnhof, and a rich cultural heritage. The city of Amsterdam is known for its world-class museums, vibrant nightlife, and world-renowned cultural events.

Studying in Amsterdam

Amsterdam University offers an ideal environment for academic study. As part of the country's student-friendly environment, 85,000 inhabitants Amsterdam is the cultural, financial and commercial hub of the Netherlands. It’s also home to numerous (international) companies, institutions and museums. The city boasts beautiful architecture, including the world-renowned Begijnhof, and a rich cultural heritage.

The city as a campus

The city of Amsterdam, and its unique geographical location, offers an ideal environment for studying. As part of the country's student-friendly environment, 85,000 inhabitants Amsterdam is the cultural, financial and commercial hub of the Netherlands. It’s also home to numerous (international) companies, institutions and museums. The city boasts beautiful architecture, including the world-renowned Begijnhof, and a rich cultural heritage.
the faculty offers courses from a wide range of disciplines, including:

- Humanities: Philosophy, History, Literature, Film, languages.
- Social Sciences: Economics, Law, Political Science, Sociology.
- Natural Sciences: Biology, Chemistry, Physics.

The College of Psychology offers several English-taught courses, most of them taught entirely in English in an intimate classroom setting with a maximum of 25 students. AUC is recognized by the Accrediting Council for Independent Colleges and Schools (Middle States Commission on Higher Education) and is accredited by the Dutch Ministry of Education, Culture and Science.

The faculty maintains a strong sense of identity and purpose which benefits students on their path towards a successful career and industry. Located in the financial and business heart of the Netherlands, the city of Amsterdam, the faculty holds a high-level curriculum with a solid academic foundation and international focus. The exchange courses are hosted by the Faculty of Economics and Business, Amsterdam Business School and Amsterdam School of Economics.

The Amsterdam Exchange Programme – Humanities is an important part of the international approach of the universities in the Amsterdam Metropolitan Programme.

Academic calendar

- Spring: March Apr. May June.
- Summer: July Aug.

In addition to your academic programme in the Liberal Arts & Sciences at the University of Amsterdam, you will be part of a rigorous academic community and learn and share experiences with students from more than 50 nationalities. You have the opportunity to choose from over 300 different courses throughout the academic year, including more than 50 courses taught entirely in English in an intimate classroom setting with a maximum of 25 students. AUC is recognized by the Accrediting Council for Independent Colleges and Schools (Middle States Commission on Higher Education) and is accredited by the Dutch Ministry of Education, Culture and Science.

Programme - Law (AUCL) provides Masters of Law (LLM) programmes on public and private international law, public international law, and international economics and finance. In short, the programme offers courses in both European and International Law and Economics.

The College of Economics and Business, Amsterdam University College (AUC) is a residential programme for exchange students in the fields of economics or business, aiming to provide a high-quality education in an intimate environment. The programme is organized in thematic clusters: Social Sciences and Communication Science, Psychology, Economics and Business.

The Social Sciences and Communication Science programme offers courses in both European and International Law and Economics. The programme offers courses in the fields of sociology, social anthropology, communication science, political science, and history, as well as multidisciplinary courses on Dutch society designed especially for exchange students. The exchange programme is organized in thematic modules.

Liberal Arts & Sciences

The University of Amsterdam’s Liberal Arts & Sciences (LAS) is a residential programme for exchange students in the fields of economics or business, aiming to provide a high-quality education in an intimate environment. The programme offers courses in both European and International Law and Economics. The programme offers courses in the fields of sociology, social anthropology, communication science, political science, and history, as well as multidisciplinary courses on Dutch society designed especially for exchange students. The exchange programme is organized in thematic modules.

Medicine and Dentistry

The Amsterdam University College (AUC) is located at the University of Amsterdam. AUC is a residential programme for exchange students in the fields of economics or business, aiming to provide a high-quality education in an intimate environment. The programme offers courses in both European and International Law and Economics. The programme offers courses in the fields of sociology, social anthropology, communication science, political science, and history, as well as multidisciplinary courses on Dutch society designed especially for exchange students. The exchange programme is organized in thematic modules.

Courses are offered across disciplinary boundaries, with a particular emphasis on the Sciences. All courses are taught entirely in English in an intimate classroom setting with a maximum of 25 students. AUC is located at the Amsterdam Campus in the eastern part of the city, where students live in on-campus housing. City life is vibrant, with a mix of cafes, bars, restaurants, and public transport options. The university is also home to the Hollandse Taalbank, which provides Dutch language courses for international students.

The Social Sciences and Communication Science programme offers courses in the fields of sociology, social anthropology, communication science, political science, and history, as well as multidisciplinary courses on Dutch society designed especially for exchange students. The exchange programme is organized in thematic modules.
Economics and Business
The faculty of humanities is a strategic partner in the academic calendar of the University of Amsterdam. It is a broadly based, interdisciplinary faculty with a strong focus on research and education. The faculty has a high level of collaboration within the university and with other institutions. The academic calendar offers a wide range of courses in humanities, economics, and business. Students from the faculty have the opportunity to study courses in a variety of disciplines, including economics, philosophy, and cultural studies. The faculty also organises exchange opportunities for two of its programmes: the Bachelor’s in Arts and the Research Master’s in Economics.

Social and Behavioural Sciences
The Faculty of Social and Behavioural Sciences offers a wide range of courses, covering various subjects in the Sciences, Social Sciences, Humanities, and Academic Core. All Master’s programmes at the Faculty of Social and Behavioural Sciences are open to international students. You can choose your own path in this programme by choosing from a variety of course options. The programmes consist of a combination of courses covering various subjects in the Sciences, Social Sciences, Humanities, and Academic Core. All students can choose courses that suit their specific academic goals.

Medicine and Dentistry
The Amsterdam Medical Centre of the University of Amsterdam accepts a limited number of students from international medical schools in the exchange programme. As an exchange student, you can apply for admission to the University of Amsterdam’s College of Medical and Dental Education. For courses and the thorough knowledge of the Dutch language is required. However, you must have completed at least three years of your medical education before coming to the University. The Academic Centre for Dentistry in Amsterdam accepts international students from the College of Dental Education. Programmes consist of specialisation in general dentistry. Information about the courses offered in the exchange programme can be found on the University’s website.

Library Arts & Sciences
The College of Library Arts & Sciences at the University of Amsterdam offers a wide range of courses. As an exchange student, you can choose a Bachelor’s degree in Art and Cultural Sciences. The programme offers courses in the fields of sociology, art history, and cultural studies. Courses cover various subjects in the Sciences, Social Sciences, Humanities, and Academic Core. All students can choose courses that suit their specific academic goals.

Admission Requirements
To apply for an exchange programme, you must have completed at least three years of your medical education before coming to the University. The Academic Centre for Dentistry in Amsterdam accepts international students from the College of Dental Education. Programmes consist of specialisation in general dentistry. Information about the courses offered in the exchange programme can be found on the University’s website.

Living Costs
Living costs vary depending on your specific living situation. The average cost of living in Amsterdam is approximately €750 per month, which includes accommodation, food, and general living expenses. The faculty maintains a strong sense of identity and pride in its students and play an active role in the local community. Connect with the College of Social Sciences and Communication Science, The College of Social Sciences offers, in cooperation with the College of Communication, the multidisciplinary programme in Liberal Arts & Science. The programme offers courses in the fields of sociology, critical anthropology, critical communication science, and cultural studies. The faculty organises exchange opportunities for two of its programmes: the Bachelor’s in Arts and the Research Master’s in Social Sciences.
The Faculty of Humanities in the Netherlands is the largest of its kind in the Netherlands. It offers an enormous range of subjects and perspectives on topics such as history, art, culture, language, and society. As an international student, you can choose from a variety of programmes, including Bachelor’s, Master’s, and PhD programmes. The programmes offer courses in both English and Dutch, and most of these courses are open to exchange students. You are expected to have completed a basic programme in the relevant field, or to have obtained a relevant Bachelor's degree in the relevant field. Additionally, the Graduate School of Social Sciences organizes opportunities for two of its tracks, Comparative Labour and Organization Programme and the Research Master’s in Urban Studies.

Academic calendar

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Block 1 of 8 weeks</th>
<th>Block 2 of 8 weeks</th>
<th>Block 3 of 4 weeks</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

All Masters’ programmes at the Faculty of Social and Behavioural Sciences are taught for exchange master students. You can choose Masters’ level courses in Sociology, International Relations and Global Studies, Political Science, Computer Science, Law and Life Sciences, Economics, Education, Media, Political Science, Physics, Psychology, Sociology, Social Sciences, and Social Sciences. The programmes offer courses for exchange students in the fields of sociology, public anthropology, comparative criminology, political sciences and foreign languages and policy, as well as interdisciplinary courses on Dutch society designed especially for exchange students. The exchange programme is organised in thematic student.

Social and Behavioural Sciences

The Faculty of Social and Behavioural Sciences enrolls a broad community with a social science and humanities background and the largest educational and research institution in the Social Sciences in the Netherlands. Exchange students are hosted by the four faculties of this college.

Children development and education

The College of Childhood Development and Education offers several courses in English for exchange students, as well as the possibility to enroll in courses of the Research Master in Social Sciences. To be eligible, you must have completed a Bachelor’s degree in any related subject and have a good command of the English language.

Medicine and Dentistry

The Amsterdam School of the University of Amsterdam is a select number of students from international medical schools in the exchange programme. As an exchange student, you can apply for academic credit, immersion into research, clinical training, and internships. For courses and the additional knowledge of the Dutch language is required. However, you must have completed at least three years of your medical education before coming to the University of Amsterdam. The Academic Centre for Dentistry Amsterdam only accepts exchange students from within the European Union. If you are not a student at a faculty of the University of Amsterdam, you will not be admitted to the programme. For more information, please contact the University of Amsterdam’s admissions office.

Liberal Arts & Sciences

The Amsterdam School of Liberal Arts & Sciences (ASLA) is a residential university in Europe that is dedicated to the liberal arts and sciences. It offers an undergraduate and graduate education in the Arts, Sciences, and Social Sciences. The college offers undergraduate and graduate programmes in a wide variety of disciplines, including but not limited to English, History, Philosophy, Communication, and International Relations.

The Amsterdam School of Liberal Arts & Sciences offers a unique learning experience for students from around the world. Students have the opportunity to engage with a diverse community of scholars, learn from experts in their fields, and develop valuable skills for the global workforce.

Cost of living

Accommodation costs vary depending on the type of accommodation, location, and personal preferences. Rent can range from €450 to €1,200 per month. Students can choose from a variety of options, including shared apartments, furnished studios, and college dormitories.

Transport

Students in Amsterdam have access to an extensive public transport system, which includes trams, buses, and trains. Students can purchase a variety of travel passes to suit their needs.

Healthcare

Students are required to have health insurance, which can be purchased through the Dutch Student Health Insurance (DSBO). The cost of health insurance is included in the tuition fees for students who are enrolled in Dutch universities.

Financial aid

The Amsterdam School of Liberal Arts & Sciences offers financial aid to students in need. Students can apply for scholarships and grants from a variety of sources, including the school, the government, and private organizations.

For more information, visit the school's website or contact the admissions office directly.
Economics and Business
The Faculty of Economics and Business is a strong and international business school, renowned in business or economics at the UvA means you can
In addition, the Graduate School of Social Sciences organises exchange opportunities for two of Social Sciences. This programme offers courses for exchange students in the field of sociology, cultural anthropology, communications science, political science, and cultural geography and planning, as well as interdisciplinary courses on Dutch society designed especially for exchange students. The exchange programme is organised in tandem with Social Sciences.

All Master’s programmes at the Faculty of Economics and Business are open to exchange master students. You can choose Master’s level courses, or complete an introduction course, for instance, in international business, international marketing, accounting & finance, intelligence, construction, economics, computer science, law and life sciences.

The Amsterdam Law School offers a variety of courses in both European and International law and English law at bachelor level. All law students may choose courses such as:

• European International Law
• International Trade & Investment Law
• European Competition Law & Regulation
• European Private Law
• International and European Cultural Law

Science
The Faculty of Science is located at the Science Park, an area in Amsterdam with a high level of knowledge-intensive industry. The faculty’s new building opened in 2006. It is the home of numerous institutes and research infrastructures, such as a solar and stellar observatory, a greenhouse complex, an environment research facility, a soil science centre, and an ancient art centre.

The four biggest categories of courses in science are taught in Dutch. However, some Bachelor’s programmes offer courses in English, some Master’s programmes offer courses in Dutch and English, and there is a small number of courses offered only in English.

• Public International Law
• International & European Law
• European Competition Law & Regulation
• European Private Law
• International and European Cultural Law
The UvA’s global network benefits you if you are interested in coming to study on exchange at the University of Amsterdam, since it is one essential question you must answer before you begin - is there an exchange agreement with your home university? And if you have been nominated for an exchange programme, if it has an official agreement with your home university and if you have been selected for an exchange programme by your home university.

You first need to contact your home university to confirm if you are selected for the exchange student programme. The Home University Office will contact you to set up an appointment to discuss the exchange programme in detail. We highly recommend that you attend the Amsterdam Science Park open days.

Incoming exchange students are hosted by one of the 10 partner universities worldwide. But the only way to ensure you get a place on a programme is to submit your application. It is an official agreement with your home university and if you have been nominated for an exchange programme by your home university. Your first point of contact is your home university’s exchange student office.

In summary, if you are an ambitious student at one of our partner universities, come to Amsterdam and help you broaden your horizon. If you are an ambitious student at one of our partner universities, come to Amsterdam and we'll help you broaden your horizon.

More details on the exchange programmes, and assistance with all kinds of practical procedures are.

We’re here to help

Incoming students are hosted by one of the faculties and will receive academic and administrative support from the departmental international office. You may have to take one course at another faculty, but you have to register for a full-time course load in one department. The central international office of the partner universities informs and assists students with all kinds of practical matters. Detailed information about the exchange programmes, faculty and practical information is available at www.uva.nl/studielink. To learn more on the faculties, please visit www.uva.nl/faculties.

The city as a campus

Amsterdam provides an ideal environment for academic study. As the capital, its cultural life thrives. 800,000 inhabitants Amsterdam is the financial, creative and cultural heart of the Netherlands. It is a city of numerous international companies, institutions and museums. The city boasts beautiful architecture, a lively atmosphere, a unique culture and a fascinating history. The people of Amsterdam are warm and welcoming to foreigners, and English is the city’s second language. Getting around is easy using the extensive public transport system, or you can explore the city by bike, discovering places where no cars, buses or trams can take you.

The city is well connected to the rest of the world. Amsterdam has excellent links to within Europe and connected for travel. Amsterdam is well-positioned as the capital of the Netherlands and if you have been nominated for an exchange programme by your home university.

The city is the world-class education.

Founded in a tradition of highly integrated academics, the University of Amsterdam enjoys a global reputation for cutting-edge research, high-quality teaching and a broadening of degree programmes. Our open, liberal and international academic tradition dates back to 1632, and continues strong today thanks to its thriving community of independent thinkers. Now among our 31,000 students, we are considered one of the best research universities in the world. The UvA offers one of the largest selections of English-taught programmes in Europe.

Coming on exchange

We participate in an extensive network of European and global partner universities to facilitate student exchange and help you broaden your horizon. If you are an ambitious student at one of our partner universities, we encourage you to participate in a challenging and rewarding academic exchange programme to the UvA, to gain an international perspective on your academic and professional problem-solving skills, expand your international outlook, and achieve a degree that will provide you with a competitive edge on the labour market.

Studying in Amsterdam

Amsterdam provides an ideal environment for academic study. As the capital, it’s cultural life thrives. 800,000 inhabitants Amsterdam is the financial, creative and cultural heart of the Netherlands. It is a city of numerous international companies, institutions and museums. The city boasts beautiful architecture, a lively atmosphere, a unique culture and a fascinating history. The people of Amsterdam are warm and welcoming to foreigners, and English is the city’s second language. Getting around is easy using the extensive public transport system, or you can explore the city by bike, discovering places where no cars, buses or trams can take you.

No guts, no glory

The city is the world-class education of Amsterdam enjoys a global reputation for cutting-edge research, high-quality teaching and a broadening of degree programmes. Our open, liberal and international academic tradition dates back to 1632, and continues strong today thanks to its thriving community of independent thinkers. Now among our 31,000 students, we are considered one of the best research universities in the world.

The city is Amsterdam provides an ideal environment for academic study. As the capital, its cultural life thrives. 800,000 inhabitants Amsterdam is the financial, creative and cultural heart of the Netherlands. It is a city of numerous international companies, institutions and museums. The city boasts beautiful architecture, a lively atmosphere, a unique culture and a fascinating history. The people of Amsterdam are warm and welcoming to foreigners, and English is the city’s second language. Getting around is easy using the extensive public transport system, or you can explore the city by bike, discovering places where no cars, buses or trams can take you.